

ROANOKE CHAMBER BRASS

Group Biography

Since 2001, the Roanoke Chamber Brass has been an established part of the arts culture in southwestern Virginia and has solidified its reputation as a premier chamber ensemble. The group's primary mission is to provide entertaining and educational performances to all audiences. As musicians and dedicated educators, the members seek to promote and broaden knowledge of music to students at levels ranging from elementary to university. The Roanoke Chamber Brass has enjoyed numerous performance opportunities with a wide variety of ensembles and choruses since its inception.